May 2025 Presidents Message

Hello & Greetings LHRW. Well here we are again. By the time this newsletter goes out or close to it we will have celebrated another Easter. And I hope everyone has or will enjoy the day. I have such nice memories of my mother dressing up myself and my two sisters in pretty dresses and hats she made for us for Easter. A talent I didn't inherit but blessed to look back on those days and how nice it was to get all dressed up to go to church. It's funny and a bit sad as I just don't think those traditions are still around like they were. I knew they probably were not when you see that question on Facebook. "Anyone remember getting all dressed up for Easter". Another fun thing and it's about May that you never hear about is May Day. May 1st. May Flowers and dancing around the Maypole at school. A sweet tradition I fear is lost as well.

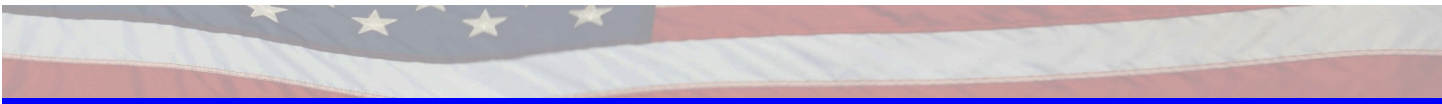

I decided I needed to start these presidents message a little early to keep up with the Roller Coaster that is going on in our government and especially in Washington DC. I admit I watch way too much news and sometimes I just need to turn it off and listen to music because it's crazy out there. Now the Roller Coaster with the tariffs. Are they on? Are they off? Is there a pause? The stock market is down, it's up, it's down, it's up. Nothing new. But because it's under Trump the folks in the mainstream media are going out of their minds. I trust President Trump to know what he is doing. Even Nancy Pelosi way back in 96 said China and most everyone else we traded with were ripping us off with the trade agreements we had. She conveniently forgot she said that. Same with Obama, He said it too. But no one except Trump sticks to their words. He did it with the U.S. Embassy in Jerusalem. And speaking of the Democrats losing their minds. Bernie Sanders & AOC who are the face of the party right now are on their tour of "Fighting Oligarchy" This is the best one ever. Sanders rips Capitalism in pricy Coachella. General Admission was $599.00 VIP, $1,199- Camping Options $150-$10,000, Beer $15. Soda $7.00. I am still laughing. Another one you just can't make up. It's funny but sad as there are so many that are buying this craziness. I also want to give a big shout out & congratulations to our own Representative Leo Biasiucci who sponsored House Bill 2164 to remove many ultra processed foods served in our schools. It was signed by the Governor on April 14. A few things going on with our club. We will be gearing up for a few of our summer fundraisers helping the kids back to school. More info in the Caring for America Report below. Our AzFRW Summer State Meeting will be in Mesa June 19-21. At that meeting the nominating committee will be interviewing applicants for the Board of Directors. Including Region IV director. Our very own Jackie Joyce will be stepping down when her term expires. If anyone from our club is interested in this position, please reach out for more information. Another great meeting awaits on May 6 with Mayor Cal Sheehy as our speaker. So, I hope to see you all there. Once again Thank You all for the wonderful support of our club.

May 2025 Caring for America

Thank you members for your participation in our Caring for America Projects. Caring for America projects are one requirement to keep our charter with The National Federation of Republican Women. These projects show the community that Republicans do not depend on government to help those in need. It puts us out in the community in the best way. Republican Women are amazing.

We will be gathering shoes and socks for The Clothes Closet Back to School Drive. We will need them for our June 3rd meeting. The drive is July but they need time to sort and organize the sizes well in advance. We ask members to bring shoes and socks for school children. This includes bigger sizes. We have junior high and high school kids in need of shoes. The bigger kids get left out often. They really need girl sizes up to 11 and boys up to 13. We ask for new shoes and socks only. Kids deserve to start school with a new pair of shoes. So start checking on sales for shoes and socks for all ages. Volunteers are always needed for this event (July 12th) and it is so much fun to see the kids and families receiving the much needed items.

Members, we need donations for our raffle baskets. New gift items and especially gift cards for restaurants or coffee shops. We will use anything you have. Some ideas are a Coffee Basket, Spa Basket, Movie Basket, Patriotic Basket or a themed dinner basket, Italian, Asian, Mexican?

We also are looking for one more team to help with the baskets. Grab a friend and volunteer for this project please. See Karen Wilhelms for details.

You continue to support Military Moms every month all year, thank you

Thank you from my heart, I love all of you and you all make me proud.
